JOURNEY through the BIBLE

Welcome back to the My Place With Jesus Journey through the Bible. You may have heard the saying, "Be sure your sin will find you out." You can find this statement in the Bible in Numbers 32:23.

On our journey through the Bible we have seen that it doesn't pay to be dishonest, but that dishonesty brings great sorrow. When we are dishonest it doesn't just affect us, but like the ripples created in water when a stone is thrown, the results of dishonesty continue to spread outward and affect others. As you journey through this month's reading, see if you can trace the results of Jacob's dishonesty.

Send your challenge form to me by April 8, 2019, to receive your third Journey through the Bible sticker. Complete all 12 Bible readings and you'll receive a special My Place With Jesus prize at the end of the year. Prepare to be blessed as you daily spend time with Jesus and His Word!

Esau sold his birthright to Jacob for a bowl of lentils! A birthright promised a double inheritance as well as inheriting the father's role as head of the family. Use the Bible verses Genesis 21:5; Genesis 25:7; Genesis 25:26 to figure out how old Jacob and Esau were when this exchange took place.

AN IT IS WRITTEN MINISTRY

Honesty is so important to God that He included it in the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:16). The Bible is full of promises we can claim when we are tempted to be dishonest. Here are just a few: 1 Corinthians 10:13; James 4:7; 1 John 4:4; and James 1:12.
